

SUGGESTED INTERVIEW QUESTIONS

for Suz Meyers author of Rediscovering the Divine

General Questions

1. What changed for you when you considered your spiritual journey from a different perspective and what became clear to you about God's plan?
2. Why do you think people who are searching for God sometimes give up? What encouragement do you have for them?
3. What do you think is your book's most important take-away for readers?
4. Many Christian books focus on Jesus, but your book is different. Why did you choose to focus on the Father and His perspective (as opposed to Jesus) in your book?
5. In many ways, your book is a fascinating biography of God and His interactions with humanity through the ages. In your view, how can God's interaction with humanity be explained? What are His desires? What motivates Him?
6. How do you reconcile some of God's actions, like raining fire down on Sodom and Gomorrah, with the overall message of God's goodness?
7. In your book, you write about God's plan to make His home among His people. How has the human heart made that difficult?

Prophecy Questions

1. Through the process of writing the book, what did God teach you about prophecy?
2. What is the importance or significance of the Third Temple in the end times?
3. One of the focal points of your book is God's timeline. What is "God's Timeline" and where do you think we are (on the timeline) today?

Author-Specific Questions

1. What did your spiritual life look like growing up?
2. What was the catalyst for writing this book?
3. What have you learned about God (the Creator) from His creation?
4. Tell us about your "crisis of faith" and share your story of surrendering to God on a golf course.
5. What did the experience with Bandit (a story you tell in the book) teach you about God?
